A beautiful wedding took place at the Congregational church on Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock, when Miss Grace Twitt and Mr. David Whitmire of Hammond were united in marriage. The church altar was a bower of roses and ferns, the service being preceded by the rendition of two solos, "I Love You Truly," and "Oh, Promise Me," by Mrs. Howard Cobb with Mrs. Walker C. Smith at the pipe organ. Mrs. Smith then played Mendelssohn's wedding march to the tune of which the bride party marched to the altar. The groom accompanied by his best man, Mr. Edward Rice of Chicago, entered by the right aisle, the bride preceded by her maid of honor, Miss Margaret Hay, entered by the left aisle on the arm of Mr. Frank N. Gavit of Gary, meeting at the altar where Dr. Charles E. Truesblood, pastor of the church performed the beautiful ring ceremony, the bride being given in marriage by Mr. Gavit. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white satin, train, trimmed in chamois lace, her veil being wreathed in orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Hay also was beautifully gowned, wearing a pink pussy willow satin dress trimmed with silver lace, silver bands adorning her hair. She carried an arm bouquet of pink roses and pink sweet peas. Following the church service Mrs. Twitt entertained about 50 people at her home, consisting of relatives and very intimate friends where a pleasant time was enjoyed and a two course luncheon was served. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Beesley Smith of Oliver street and is a charming young lady, the groom being the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Whitmire, 239 Highland street, Hammond, but is employed at the Standard Oil company plant, Whiting. The young couple left Wednesday night for a few days trip expecting to return by Sunday, they intending to reside with the bride's mother at 345 Oliver street. The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Whitmire and daughter, Ethel of Hammond; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rice of Chicago; Lloyd Daugherty of Indiana Harbor; Mrs. John Michael of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Frank N. Gavit and Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Woodward of Gary.

The Standard Oil company band will give another one of their excellent concerts at the H. S. auditorium on next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, with Eddie Foy as conductor. The band also gave a concert at East Chicago on Wednesday evening.

MEETING THE CHALLENGE

1. Over 1,500 children in this region enrolled in the religious education classes. Religious education is the child's method of growth morally and spiritually. 2. A corps of earnest Christian teachers daily imparting Christian knowledge and Christian ideals to glowing faced, eager responsive children. 3. Weekly evening training classes in every town for leaders and parents. 4. Keen business men, for sighted individuals, parents seeking their children's best backing the movement in every way they can in the Calumet region are meeting the challenge. "I was never so happy as at this Christmas time," said a religious education teacher. "Why?" said another. "Oh, I never before had a chance to work in this work with children. Isn't it just wonderful to see their enthusiasm and to see the way in which they want to take home stockings to fill for children they do not know?"
